* Transferee warrants that they meet the suitability requirements imposed by the state in which Transferee resides.
  Complete the information below.

Transferee authorizes the Company or its agent to deposit the Transferee's distribution to the account indicated below. This authority will remain in force until Transferee notifies the Company in writing to cancel it. In the event that the Company deposits funds erroneously into the Transferee's account, the Company is authorized to debit the Transferee's account for the amount of the erroneous deposit. Transferee also hereby acknowledges that funds and/or Shares in the Transferee's account may be subject to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws and may be transferred to the appropriate governmental authority in accordance with such laws, including as a result of account inactivity for the period of time specified in such laws or otherwise. None of the Company, its affiliates, its agents or any other person shall be liable for any property delivered in good faith to a governmental authority pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Transferee acknowledges that distributions may be funded from offering proceeds or borrowings, which may constitute a return of capital and reduce the amount of capital available to the Company for investment. Any capital returned to stockholders through distributions will be distributed after payment of fees and expenses.

7. Important Information (Rights, Certifications, Authorizations)

Substitute IRS Form W-9 Certification:

Transferee declares that the information supplied in this Transfer and Assignment of Shares is true and correct and may be relied upon by the Company in connection with Transferee's investment in the Company. Under penalties of perjury, each Transferee signing below certifies that (1) the number shown in the Investor Social Security Number/Taxpayer Identification Number field in Section 4 of this form is Transferee's correct taxpayer identification number (or Transferee is waiting for a number to be issued to Transferee), and (2) Transferee is not subject to backup withholding because (a) Transferee is exempt from backup withholding, or (b) Transferee has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that Transferee is subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified Transferee that Transferee is no longer subject to backup withholding, and (3) Transferee is a U.S. person (including a non-resident alien). NOTE: Transferee must cross out Section (2) above if Transferee has been notified by the IRS that Transferee is currently subject to backup withholding because Transferee has failed to report all interest and dividends on Transferee's tax return.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require Transferee's consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

The Company is required by law to obtain, verify and record certain personal information from Transferee or persons on Transferee's behalf in order to establish the account. Required information includes name, date of birth, permanent residential address and Social Security/taxpayer identification number. The Company may also ask to see other identifying documents. If Transferee does not provide the information, the Company may not be able to open Transferee's account. Transferee agrees to provide this information and confirm that this information is true and correct. Transferee further agrees that the Company may discuss Transferee's personal information and Transferee's investment in the Shares at any time with Transferee's then current financial adviser. If the Company is unable to verify Transferee's identity, or that of another person(s) authorized to act on Transferee's behalf, or if the Company believes the Company has identified potentially criminal activity, the Company reserves the right to take action as the Company deems appropriate, which may include closing Transferee's account.
